

PARAIDSAEA PERFORMANCE CLASS CONTRACT

Students are permitted to take the performance class if they are taking two additional hours of regular class. This class will help students enhance their performance skills, including transitions, showmanship, and mastering skills that they have learned in their regular classes. The purpose of this class is to prepare students for professional performances and will not involve learning new tricks. The rules outlined in the student handbook will fully apply to this class. This contract is an extension of the student handbook contract. Both contracts must be signed in order to participate.

Attitude

As this class is preparation for professional performances, a professional attitude is expected. Students must be on time and ready to participate. Students must actively engage with instructors and other students. Positivity and hard work are necessary components for success in this class. Routines will be awarded based on both individual ability and attitude at the discretion of the instructors. Instructors have final say. All complaints may be submitted via email at paradisaea.circus.arts@gmail.com to Mary Young, studio owner.

Attendance

Students are required to regularly attend both their regular class and the performance class each week. Planned or emergency absences must be reported as per the student handbook policies. Students who miss regular or performance classes may be removed from the performance at the discretion of the instructors. Students are not permitted to miss any classes in the 6 weeks prior to a performance without prior written permission from the instructors. Make-up classes will not be granted for missing performance classes.

Consequences

Students who do not abide by the student handbook rules or that outlined in this performance contract may be issued a verbal or written warning, may be asked to sit out of class, or may be removed from the class at the discretion of the instructors. Refunds will not be issued under any circumstances.

By signing this contract, you acknowledge that you have read the Paradisaea Circus Arts Performance Class Contract and agree to the terms and conditions set forth. Parent/Guardians acknowledge that they have reviewed the contract with their child.
